Biography

In 2014 Olosun Barbara was called to become an Ifa and Nana Buuken Priest. She finished her Master's degree in translation studies in Graz, Austria. Nana Barbara's life path has included work as a translator, a foreign language teacher, a project manager, and a trainer in the field of social inclusion of vulnerable groups. She has been practicing the ancient wisdom of Ifa for more than 20 years and is also a dedicated member of the Nana Buuken Society. She has been exploring Ifa energies on every step of her destiny with Ifa Oracle in her heart observing the development of her own potential, the potential of other people, and of the whole community. The subject of her deep exploration is also the transformation of those ancestral lineage patterns that block the flow of our lives as she believes that our own empowerment is directly connected to the empowerment of our ancestral and spiritual realms. In order to explore both, the invisible Universal aspects of existence through Ifa and the human belief systems responsible for contributing their own part on our chosen destiny path. Nana Barbara specializes in ancestor reverence & rituals and is deeply committed to teaching the importance of lineage as empowerment.
