Holistic Lifestyle Coach

Biography

Kyle J Johnson (Oluwo Ifakayode) is a native priest of the Ifa Foundation International. He was initiated into the Ifa priesthood by Oluwo Fagbamila and Iyanifa Olufadeke in 2010 and became an Oluwo in 2021. He is devoted to the path of Ifa and specializes in teaching universal methods of spiritual awakening that are at the heart of the Ifa spiritual tradition. Through his devotion to spirituality, Oluwo Ifakayode became an initiate of the Kashmir Shaivism spiritual tradition in 2012 and is an instructor in the lineage of Gupta MahaSiddha Yoga since 2018. As an ardent spiritual aspirant and teacher, Oluwo Ifakayode seeks to inspire an understanding of the Universality of spiritual wisdom found in the Yoruba Religion and other authentic spiritual paths and advocates an internal approach to practicing Ifa. His mission as an Ifa priest is to contribute to the evolution and expansion of the Ifa tradition by reconnecting the New World expression of Ifa with its primordial roots. He is a spiritual teacher, life coach, professional numerologist, and holds a bachelor's degree in Africana Studies and Holistic Health sciences. Currently pursuing a doctorate degree in Ayurveda and Integrative health, Oluwo Ifakayode seeks to integrate his knowledge of holistic health sciences as an integral component of Ifa and Òrìsà practice, thus inspiring practitioners of Ifa to live healthier lives by making simple but effective diet and lifestyle changes. He advocates a holistic approach to practicing Ifa such that every aspect of life becomes an integral component for spiritual evolution.
